

March 2021

COVID-19 Precautions:

As things begin to open up in our state, we encourage people to mask in and out and to try to maintain some physical distancing whenever possible.

We also strongly encourage you to utilize the sanitation stations by the doors each time you enter.

We love that you are here and are trying to provide for a safe environment in which to gather for worship.